For some applications, a Planning and Development review (P&D review) may be required BEFORE a business license is issued to ensure that businesses can legally and safely operate in their proposed locations.

Important notes about the P&D review:

- >> the P&D review is a one-time review for new applications (no annual fees or reviews)
- >> the base P&D review fee is $40.00; additional fees may be required for some of the other review steps
